Some of the persecutors may be unconsciously so, either unwilling to let, or those assuming leadership are designedly depriving innocent men of liberty,
the opportunity of supporting families, depriving wives and babies, who are nearly innocent, of any means of income, wherewith to buy the necessities of life. But the mad scramble for office operates on all. Wives may be made widows and children orphans, but the abounding faith which men have in have in true Kentucky manhood makes them hope a day of relier may come.
We congratulate the Trustees of the Pugh upon the firmness of his stand in favor of freedom.

Mr. Hechinger,

upon the valuable help he has rendered the Administration. We further desire his candidacy for renomination and instruct the Delegates from this county to the Congressional Convention, to be held at Ashland, May 2d, to vote for his renomination. We also remain a candidate, and to use all honorable means to secure it.

Having full confidence in the character, integrity and ability of Captain Horace J. Cochran, Major of the 1st Massachusetts Infantry, the Republicans will present his name as a candidate for Delegate to the National Convention at Philadelphia, and the delegation from this county is instructed to vote for him and urge his selection and use all honorable means to that end.

SILKS

In writing the story of Dress Goods one naturally makes Silk the heroine. Silk sets the pace for the entire procession. The following were opened new within a month. Fastidious elegance in every filament of warp and filling:

Pure silk. A fine granulated weave, soft to the touch, a clear black. With raw silk at its present price, the true value of this Armure is $1.35. Our price $1.00.

MERVEILLEUX.

A twisted satin soft as porch down, lustre as wasteful selvaige, black

RHADAME.
Twilled in more pronounced welts than Merveilleux; heavier; correct for dress skirts. $1.25.

SATIN DUCHESSE.
The diadem of the collection, soft as finest French kid, perfect black, highly lustrous. Three grades, 85c, $1, $1.50.

BLACK TAFFATA.

Did you know there is a kind guaranteed to wear without splitting one year
If it fails of this fulfillment, your money back. $1 yard.

COLORED TAFFATAS.

In plain and fancy. Many pretty shades, numerous original, seductive designs—the latter in 4-yard lengths to secure the exclusiveness of each waist, up to $1.75 yard.

SPRINGDALE.

Dr. Stanham of Cincinnati was here a few days the past week.

Mrs. B. F. Hook is visiting friends and relatives in Lewis county this week.

Mr. J. M. Cochran came up from Mayville Friday evening to spend a few days with friends here.

Master Lawrence Elliott severely cut his foot with an ax. Dr. Hook dressed the wound and he is resting well.

PLUMVILLE.

A. L. Redman visited relatives and friends in Lewis county recently.

Mrs. Bodman and daughter were guests of relatives at Tolleboro Sunday.

Dr. Outten has made several professional visits to Brown county, O., recently.

Mrs. Green Jaffhill and daughter were guests of the family of J. L. Cray Monday.

Sunday-school was organized here with Matthew Hoffman Superintendent and Dr. Outten Assistant.

Miss Nannie Luman of Tolleboro returned to her home Sunday after a week's visit with her cousin, Miss Rena Mae Coryell.

Mr. and Mrs. Cornelius Coryell have the sympathy of their many friends in the death of their infant daughter a few days ago.

Mrs. Reba White of Tolleboro and guest, her mother of Portsmouth, were calling on friends at Orchard Farm Thursday afternoon.

KENNARD.

Mr. L. B. Woodward and wife were visiting friends in Mayville Saturday.

Mrs. Susan Stevenson of Pleasant Ridge was the guest of Mr. A. T. Hicks and family Sunday.

Mr. James Henson and two daughters, Misses Lila and Lucile, were guests of Mr. Henry Henson of near Mt. Olivet Saturday and Sunday.

Messrs. Lonie White and Charles Wilson have returned home after spending several days very pleasantly with friends at Orangeburg last week.

Rev. T. B. Stratton of Selden M. E. Church, Mayville, preached a very eloquent sermon at Salem M. E. Church Sunday evening. Our Pastor, Rev. Sturge, preached for him at Netten Church Sunday morning and evening.

Our farmers are looking very pleasant these days. This month has been one among the best for breaking and preparing the soil for a crop. Tobacco plants look well. Fruit trees are in full bloom and wheat looks fine and promises a bountiful harvest.

Webster May, son of Benjamin and Martha May, near this place, became insane and was taken to Lexington Asylum a few days ago. Webster was an unusually good boy. He was twenty years old, the only child, and we might say the only support of the parents in their old age.

Noted Healer in Town.

The greatest healer of modern times is Dr. J. J. Wood, who has cured many cases of all kinds of diseases. Guaranteed. J. J. Wood & Son, 202 and Armstrong & Co.

For Choice Cigars and Tobacco go to Ward Nash, No. 8 West Second street.

Can't you induce your neighbor who borrows and reads your copy of THE LADDER to subscribe for it himself? Suppose you ask him.

Most women with a delicate constitution, suffering from piles in addition to their other ailments, may be cured by using Dr. J. J. Wood's Buckeye Pile Ointment. Price, 50 cents in bottles. Tubes, 25 cents. J. J. Wood & Son.

Compare it with other local papers, and then say, if you can, that THE LADDER isn't the best, and that it doesn't give the most for the money. Can't you afford to have it left at your residence for a month? Mr. Hal Curran will be glad to book your order.

WHAT OF THE NIGHT?

PROSPECT IN KENTUCKY.

How a Decision of Federal Supreme Court Might Affect It.

Lexington Herald.

If the Supreme Court takes jurisdiction of the Kentucky case and reverses the judgment of our Court of Appeals, not only will all parties submit, but Kentucky will be at peace immediately. If such decision be rendered, the Beckham Government would at once dissolve; his army of occupation would disband; the acts nominally enacted at the late session of the Legislature would be nugatory; there would be no election for Governor and the Presidential and Congressional election would overshadow the election of an Appellate Judge in the Montgomery District. Governor Taylor would be recognized by all departments and officers. There might be some questions arising which the Courts would adjudicate, but they would not be numerous nor very important. If the Supreme Court refuses to take jurisdiction or affirms the judgment of our Appellate Court, Kentucky will be in a turmoil until after the November election. Until that election Mr. Beckham would be the acting Governor; his appointees would supersede the present officers in our asylums and charitable institutions. General Collier would at once disband the military at Frankfort. The two conventions would nominate candidates for Governor, and Judge of the Court of Appeals and to fill the vacancies in the two houses; and the state issues would overshadow the National election and the National issues. The issue would be the election by the people or by the Legislature. The unfortunate complications would be the subject of the most acrimonious debate. Governor Taylor was elected at the November election; was deprived of his office without a real hearing and by a false and fabricated journal, and was the object of a foul conspiracy to be made successful by bribery and perjury—these would be the charges made everywhere by the supporters of Governor Taylor. The very foundation of free institutions is free and honest elections; the people have the right and the only legal right of election; the highest duty of the citizen is to be obedient to the mandate of the voters at the polls; the contest was a mere sham; a fraudulent pretext; the result was predetermined and the members were fraudulently selected, because they could be relied upon to do what was required; the "round robin" was a false action and the whole journal fabricated; those allegations will be pressed every day.

Pains in the Back.
A. B. Farrington, Contantia, N. Y., says: "I was troubled several years with pains in the back and suffered severe pains in the back and limbs. I tried Foley's Kidney Cure and it cured me. I recommend it to my friends. It has given me back my health. I am now well and strong." J. J. Wood & Son and Armstrong & Co.

The death of Miss Lydia Morehead leaves a vacancy in the Postmaster's office at Mt. Pleasant, N. Y. Mr. T. P. Bratton, who has been Assistant Postmaster, is an applicant for the vacancy.

Perfect digestion is the only foundation for perfect health. The food we eat makes all the difference we have, which in turn feeds every nerve, muscle and tissue in the body. Therefore, to secure the appetite, aids digestion, gives tone and vigor to all the functions of the body. Good health. Price, 50 cents. J. J. Wood & Son.

HARD TO COMBAT.

The Evidence of Our Senses—What Mayville People Say is Pretty Good Proof For Magnetic People.

When we set ourselves, When our own ears hear it, When our neighbors tell it, Our friends endorse it, No better evidence can be had.

It's not what people say in Maine, Or distant mountains in California, So deceiving echoes here, Mayville people talk about Mayville people.

Mrs. Elmer Bridges of 22 West Third street says: "I am the mother of the great merit of Doan's Kidney Pills over a year ago while in Pittsburgh, Pa. and in every neighborhood and at every gathering. And to these will be added attacks upon the prosecution of innocent men; illegal arrests upon warrants falsely sworn out by irresponsible blood-suckers and unworthy detectives; and charges of packed juries and prejudiced Courts will be solemnly made by men of the highest character and standing.

On the other hand the attacks and defenses will be equally bitter and exciting. Mr. Goebel was assassinated; the Legislature under the Constitution had the power to determine this contest, and did determine it according to the provisions of the statute. The assassination of Mr. Goebel; the use of the military; the conspiracy to use force because Governor Taylor knew he would be ousted, and all these were crimes against law and the forms of law. The Courts decided in favor of the Democrats and the decrees of the Courts are the last resort of contestants in a state of law and order; these and similar charges will be hurled at the nominees of the other party. In such a canvass National issues will be forgotten; National questions will be forgotten. It will be a bitter, unhappy, tumultuous campaign. Civil liberty will be at stake; free elections will be the real prize; the right of the people to elect their servants will be the true object of the fight. Neighborhoods will be divided; families will be divided; friendships will be broken. As representatives in Congress are to be elected there will be no question as to the jurisdiction of Federal Courts over crimes committed at this election.

Under the Goebel Law the State Board, composed of Messrs. Poyntz, Fulton and Vonts, will appoint "reliable" County Boards; these 116 County Boards will select "reliable" election officers; and everything known to the trained and disciplined corps of election veterans will be attempted, unless a wholesome dread of the Federal Courts overcomes the desire to win at all hazards and by all means.

The prospect is not an inviting one; the immediate future is not enchanting to one who loves Kentucky. And these days and events will be complicated by the trials under the indictments returned by the Franklin Grand Jury.

The whole country will be deeply interested in the Kentucky campaign; the Kentucky complications will enter into the canvass in other states.

We contemplate this canvass with profound reluctance and sincere pain. If indeed the Supreme Court could—with a good conscience—reverse the judgment of the Courts, it would be a blessed result; it would give us peace, good order, the return of the reign of the people.
